ENG

Phoenix Flower is a unique fire sculpture, a play between Oriental stories and materiality inspired by Nordic shapes. Customer feedback was very important to help us to improve this product and bring it to its version today. The end result is not only aesthetically pleasing but functional and practical.

This fire pit is made of high quality rust or stainless steel. This product is very durable and will last long years. Its features will complement many outdoor decors, both in winter and summer.

No assembly required, item arrives as one piece. Bottom is removable for cleaning.
